Project Description
The project goal was to provide extra seed and transplant in the garden of tomorrow to further tiger mountain foundations goal of providing nutritious affordable fruits and vegetables to low and moderate income communities.
Amount Received
$500.00
How did this project make a difference in reducing childhood hunger in Arizona
We used our monies to purchase seed to plant nutritious fruit and vegetables in our garden of tomorrow plots on 18 th place and Broadway. We were also able to purchase some garden tools and pay stipends to some of the adults assisting with the project. 1/3 of the fruits and vegetable grown are freely given to the youth and families in our going guest to provide nutritious food and stare off hunger
Number of children served
45 plus youth between the ages of 3 years and 18 years. Ongoing We continue to provide the vegetables to the youth and target community
Number of meals served
75 plus meals were served
Number of snacks served
Vegetables and Fruit was served to 75 plus youth and adults
Description of meals/snack served
We have received numerous feedback on the grilled chicken and romaine wraps that were served and we have made them a staple or our garden events
Description of most popular meal/snack served
The most popular meal is chicken (grilled). Turkey dogs (grilled) with freshly sliced tomatoes and romaine lettuce to wrap the dogs. We also had iceberg lettuce salad with different adornments from the garden squash, zucchini, onions, melons and tomatoes.
What improvement/impact was made
The improvement was made to the amount of seed supply. That will be used to grow more crops. The impact will allow us to plant for months
How did you measure the success of the project
We measured our success by the number of youth that participated and continue to participate in the garden. To date we have had on going participation in the garden events and planting harvesting from over 30 youths.
Will the program continue
We have a saying in the community "Let's roll till the wheels fall off" which means we are pleased with this program and look forward to other efforts involving APECH and Tiger Mountain Foundation.
